Eligibility Checker

Eligibility checker

Journal authors can use our tool below to check their eligibility for support for Gold Open Access via:

- Institutional open access agreements with Cambridge (over 2,000 institutions are currently covered)
- The Cambridge Open Equity Initiative, covering authors from over 100 low- and middle-income countries, areas and territories, including over 5,000 institutions
- Research4Life, for authors from low- and middle-income countries, areas and territories who are not covered by an institutional open access agreement or the Cambridge Open Equity Initiative

This tool will provide full details of which journals and article types are eligible for funding support. Eligibility is based on the affiliation of the corresponding author (<https://www.cambridge.org/core/services/authors/publishing-ethics/research-publishing-ethics-guidelines-for-journals/authorship-and-contributorship#corresponding-authors/>).
